

127 Junction Lane Wahroonga, NSW

5 bed | 4 bath | 3 car

Expansive east-side entertainer - Predominantly full brick Designed by acclaimed architect Harvey Little, this expansive residence is perfect for a growing family, offering both generous proportions and exceptional privacy. Positioned on a magnificent 1,373sqm level parcel in Wahroonga's blue ribbon east side, the home overlooks Claude Cameron Oval and is conveniently placed close to the area's prestigious schools. With an emphasis on entertaining both inside and out, a flawless layout caters to multi-generational living, featuring secluded in-law/guest accommodation as well as a palatial master suite. Embraced by established gardens, an in-ground pool and child-friendly lawns, from here a short stroll leads to village shops and the popular 'Bush School'.

- A commanding facade and full brick construction on the main level
- Double entry foyer and a multitude of formal and relaxed living zones
- Modern CaesarStone kitchen with barn doors to a custom butler's pantry
- Waterfall island and a 7-burner Smeg gas cooker with double ovens
- Five oversized bedrooms includes a lower-level in-law/guest suite
- Huge master suite includes a full ensuite with tub and his/her stone vanity
- Jetmaster gas fireplace and ducted air conditioning
- Entertaining gazebo, child-friendly lawns and access to Claude Cameron Oval
- Glass-framed swimming pool framed by mature gardens and paved terracing
- Timber floors, abundant storage, internal access to the automatic triple garage
- Steps to Turramurra/Wahroonga and Hornsby station buses and 1km to the 'Bush School'

Fiona Thomas

m: 0412 334 589

t: 02 9061 3199

e: fionat@themarshallgroup.com.au

Finley Pedersen

m: 0475 888 599

t: 02 9061 3199

e: finleyp@themarshallgroup.com.au